

Deputies' Meeting

Tuesday, 2 December 1952

25X1
PRESENT: General Smith, Messrs. Dulles, Wisner, Hedden, Amory, [redacted] 25X1
Col. White, [redacted]

General Smith:

a. Noted a personal letter he had received from [redacted] concerning 25X1 an interview he had with the [redacted] and asked [redacted] 25X1
to (1) acknowledge this letter and request [redacted] to furnish us with any other 25X1 intelligence information he might acquire; (2) circulate copies of [redacted] 25X1 letter to D/DCI, DD/P, and DD/I. It is to be noted that [redacted] did not send 25X1 a copy of the above interview to the Department of State.

b. Asked Mr. Wisner for a status report on the interrogation of the [redacted] 25X1 individual who was returned to Headquarters in connection with the [redacted]

Mr. Dulles:

[redacted]

e. Gave the Director a draft proposal on PRC procedures.

f. Referred to a cable from the [redacted] and, after some discussion wherein the Director approved the liaison mentioned therein, Mr. Dulles undertook to have [redacted] come in for another conference 25X1

[redacted] might be available. The Director noted if a satisfactory arrangement could not be made he would take this matter up with CNO.

Mr. Wisner:

a. Briefly reported on a meeting he had yesterday with Ambassador George McGhee as a follow up to McGhee's previous conversation with D/DCI.

b. Reported that the EE Division had requested the appointment of [redacted] 25X1
 [redacted] After some discussion, the Director (1) disapproved [redacted] appointment, (2) stated 25X1 that we already had too many consultants and he intended to "tighten up" on future approvals; (3) noted that DD/I had more requirements for consultants than the other offices; (4) suggested that use be made of one of our approved consultants in place of [redacted] 25X1

[redacted]
 Meeting and stated that (1) not more than three people were involved and, in all probability, only one individual would make this request; (2) there was no need to put this matter in writing to the Treasury Department; (3) it could be handled verbally by our General Counsel. The DCI approved.
